ARRL Divisions

There are 15 divisions, we are in the Northwestern Division that includes – Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington

Each division has an elected Director and Vice Director

Our Division Director is Mike Ritz W7VO

Our Vice Director is Mark Tharp KB7HDX

What do the Directors do?

The ARRL Board of Directors determines ARRL policies that are implemented by the HQ staff. Each Division's Director and their Vice Director represent their Division on ARRL policy matters

They meet twice a year for a board meeting (both the Director and their Vice Director attend the meetings, but only the Director votes) .

Each Director and Vice Director are assigned to one or more working committees.

Mike Ritz W7VO serves on the: HF Band Planning committee and the DX advisory committee.

Mark Tharp KB7HDX serves on the: Amateur Radio Legal Defense & Assistance committee, ARISS committee, and Public service enhancement working group

ARRL Sections

The ARRL divides the United States and its territories into 71 administrative sections. A few of the larger states, such as Texas, California, Washington (and others) are divided into more than one section. We are in the Eastern Washington Section of the Northwestern Division.

The membership in each section elects a Section Manager(SM) once every two years. The SM is responsible for managing the Field Organization programs in their section.

The SM recruits ARRL volunteers to staff various crucial program areas.

ARRL Sections

Washington State is divided into two Sections:
Western Washington Section:

Section Manager - Monte L Simpson, W7FF

Eastern Washington:

Section Manager - Jack Tiley AD7FO

What Does the EWA Section Manager do?

- The SM recruits, appoints, and supervises section-level staff to administer the Field Organization's principal areas of responsibility in the section. These areas are emergency communications, message traffic relay, technical activity, government relations, public relations in the general community,
- Appoints qualified ARRL members in the section to other volunteer positions in support of Field Organization.
 - Section Emergency Coordinator – Rob Fisher WA7RF
 - Technical Coordinator – Dave Carelton K7DSR
 - Affiliated Club Coordinator – Harold Hepner AE7QJ
 - Assistant Section Managers – Mary Weise AA7RT and 5 others
 - Section Traffic Manager- Open

What Does the EWA Section Manager do?

- Keeps well informed concerning matters of ARRL policy so as to administer the Field Organization in accordance with current policy and to provide correct information in response to members' inquiries.
- Attends Hamfests to represent ARRL and promotes membership
 - At larger EWA Hamfests sets up an ARRL table and takes membership applications and renewals
 - Hosts visiting League and section VIP's
 - Maintains ARRL booth materials and display

What Does the EWA Section Manager do?

- Writes, or supervises preparation of, a monthly "Section News;" uses electronic communications, such as the Internet, to distribute information about Section activities.
- Promotes recruitment of new amateurs and new ARRL members.
- Encourages attitudes and actions which welcome new radio amateurs and integrate them into League and club activities.
- Each new Section Manager shall be required to participate in a Section Manager orientation training session that is conducted by ARRL Headquarters in Newington CT shortly after their appointment.

What Does the EWA Section Manager do?

- Each ARRL Section is annually authorized a fixed expense allocation ceiling (a maximum amount available for use by the Section).
- These funds are to be used by the Section Manager and his or her Section leadership team to reimburse travel and administrative expenses incurred in operating the Section programs during the year.
- One of the Section Manager's most important responsibilities is to budget this money so that it will be spent effectively in furthering the ARRL's objectives through out the year.

What Does the EWA Section Manager do?

- Provides a link for members to our Director and Vice Director and the League
- Provides a link to League services
- Understands League organization and can get questions directed to the league leadership answered and/or provide a league contact for members if needed.
